THE CITY.

THE SUBSCRIPTION LIST OF THE DAILY NEWS IS LARGER THAN THAT OF ANY OTHER DAILY IN THE STATE, AND MORE THAN DOUBLE THAT OF ANY OTHER DAILY IN RALEIGH. ADVERTISERS WILL MAKE A NOTE OF THIS.

WEATHER REPORT.

For the South Atlantic States, falling barometer, south and east winds, warmer, partly cloudy weather and possibly light rain.

—Enoch Council, No. 5, holds its regular monthly meeting to-night.

—The Wilmington Light Infantry have signified their purpose of being at the State Fair, fifty strong, rank and file.

—Attention is called to the advertisement of Carpenter & Earl, dealers in coal and wood. They have marked prices down.

—Our Beaufort letters are exciting a great deal of interest, but it will be equally a wonder and a pleasure if somebody don't kill the writer of them before the end of the blue fish season.

—A great baptizing took place last Sunday at Hepzibah Baptist Church, fifteen miles east of the city. Forty persons received the rite at the hands of Rev. Mr. Nowell, pastor of the church.

—Gov. Vance and Judge Settle began their second mountain campaign yesterday at Hayesville, Clay county. It will be observed that they have made further appointments, extending to the 27th inst.

—The religious interest at Cool Spring, near this city, continues. An immense crowd was present, and Rev. L. Branson assisted in the services on Sunday. There is no prospect of an abatement of the interest.

—It is about time for the papers to say that the "melancholy days have come," but this being "a custom more honored in the breach than in the observance," we call upon our brethren of the press to give us a rest.

—The Raleigh Light Infantry, under the training of Capt. Manly, is preparing for a resumption of its regular parades. It has weekly night drills. It will have its first parade, after the suspension of the summer, on Friday afternoon next.

—The next session of the institution for the deaf and dumb and the blind will begin one week from to-morrow. There have been more applications for admission, from new scholars, than ever before, and the indications are that the institution will be well filled.

Marriage in the Country.

On Sunday last, Mr. W. T. Norris, of the firm of Norris & Myatt, of this city, was united in marriage to Miss C. A. Norris, daughter of Jesse A. Norris, Esq., of this county, the ceremony being performed at Piney Grove Church, about 20 miles from the city, near the Harnett line. A very large number of people were present to witness the tying of the knot, and this interesting ceremony was performed in very beautiful language, by Rev. Monroe Holleman, of Apex. There were eight couples of attendants, names as follows: Miss Annie Rhinehart, F. O. Moring; Miss Ida Jones, H. W. Norris; Miss Sallie Adams, E. C. Hackney; Miss Dora Wright, H. E. Morris.

The bride was the recipient of quite a number of handsome presents. The young couple will pass through this city this morning, on an extended bridal tour, to New York, Philadelphia and other of the Northern cities.

The Sunday School Excursion.

The "first edition" of the Sunday School excursion will leave this morning for the Centennial via Bay Line. There will be about 65 of these on this, the first of the trains. Yesterday afternoon, 58 tickets were sold at the store of Gattis & Jones, by Mr. Martin, ticket agent of the Raleigh & Gaston, and several others will be sold this morning. Edenton Street Methodist Sunday School sends a delegation of about 20, the First Baptist, about 15; Person Street Methodist, about 10; Christ Church about 10; the Presbyterian about 5; the Hebrew 4; and the Deaf, and a number of these excursionists will be teachers, but those who will go are too numerous to mention. We wish all bon voyage and a safe return.

The Mails.

Under the recent change of schedule, the following are the hours for the opening and closing of the different mails in this city:

The Western Mail closes at 4:30 P. M.

Will Arrive To-day.

The instruments which were ordered last week for Thompson's Silver Cornet Band, will arrive by to-day's express, C. O. D., and we are requested to ask all subscribers who have not paid the amounts subscribed for the purchase of these, to be ready with their money to-day, as they will be called upon for it.

The First Time in 26 Years.

Everybody in Raleigh and many a one out of it, has heard of the old gentleman, Mr. Henderson Smith, who, though living within a few blocks of the business part of Raleigh, has not been up street in 26 years. About that many years ago his wife had a dream one night that if she crossed a certain bridge near what is now known as Tupper's Church, she would die; but despite this dream, she came up street in a day or two, crossing this bridge, and, sure enough, did die in a very short time thereafter. Very early after this, her husband had the same dream, and was so impressed with it and the fatal results attending his wife's disregard of the same dream that since that time nothing has been able to induce him to come up street. He lives on the southern part of Blount street, and his hallucination has been that if he came north of that place, either over the bridge or otherwise, the step would mark the end of his life. He owned property up on Wilmington street, and this he sold, lest under some circumstances he might have to come up to where it was situated; his tax returns, bank deposits, &c., were always made through another party, and the old man has lived religiously at home.

Well, yesterday afternoon, he and his son Richard had a fight, and policeman Goodwin summoned them to the Mayor's office. The old man put his foot right down and said he was not coming. The policeman came up and got a summons from the Mayor, and went back after him. He told him that if he did not come peacefully, force would be used upon him. So he finally came. It was all new to him, except two buildings. As he passed the "Law Building," corner of Fayetteville and Davis streets, he remarked that he "wished he had all the money he had ever put in that bank," and passing in front of the Court House he said that he remembered it; that he was in there once, when he was summoned as a juror.

When he got up in the Mayor's office, he looked as wild as a buck and gave abundant evidence of the fact that he was not pleased with the treatment he had received. His son was returned to Court and the old man was discharged without any penalty, and hastened home with joy and gladness. He did not like the surroundings. The incident excited a great deal of interest among those who knew of it, and now these are sitting back in the most impatient manner, waiting to see whether the old man is going to die or not.

Meeting of the Water Committee.

A portion of the members of the committee appointed by the Board of Aldermen at its meeting last Friday night on the subject of waterworks, held a meeting yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, at the Mayor's office, His Honor, the Mayor, chairman of the committee, presiding. It was decided to enter at once into correspondence with practical engineers and with the authorities of Norfolk, Petersburg, Danville, Richmond, Baltimore and perhaps other cities, to the end that an approximate estimate may be made of the cost of a water supply to Raleigh, the calculation based upon the cost of this to these cities. A report of the result of this correspondence will be made to an adjourned meeting of the committee next Friday night. It was decided also to call a special meeting of the Board of Aldermen to-night, and the Board will meet accordingly.

Sunday Services.

Last Sunday was in all respects a lovely day. It was very autumnal in its character, and so delightful as to call large congregations to all of the churches. All of these were open, and the services in each were in accordance with the directory published Sunday morning, except that at the First Baptist Church, where Rev. Dr. Wingate officiated at night.

"The Devil's Pets."

This is the title of a lecture which was delivered last night at the Salisbury Street Baptist Church, by Rev. R. T. Vann. Although the notice was brief, a large audience was present and was well entertained for an hour. The speaker began by saying that the devil's pets had been in existence almost ever since the creation of the world. There is little doubt that they flourished before the flood, though the first account that we have of them is in the time of Noah. Though vile and contemptible of themselves, they were very powerful, and their influence had caused thrones to totter and had rent empires asunder. After depicting in hideous colors, animals of the most disgusting character, the speaker broke upon his hearers with the information that the devil's pets was a name which he had given to drunkards. It was given because the devil, he thought, must take a peculiar pleasure in these, by reason of the fact that they do his work so well here upon earth. A large proportion of the sin and the shame which cast a blight upon this fair world, is due to these. They are the devil's own grandsons, the whiskey sellers being his sons. Three-fourths of the crimes that are committed, and three-fourths of the accidents that happen on railroads and steamboats, were alleged to be traceable directly to whiskey. An astounding calculation was made to show what could be effected with the money which was annually spent in the United States for drink, and another to show what could be done with that spent for this purpose in North Carolina.

The lecture was on the serio-comic order. It caused frequent bursts of merriment, and was anon adorned by gems of rare eloquence and appeals of genuine pathos. The enjoyment of the audience was evident, and there were few present who did not regret the closing.

When the lecturer took his seat, Rev. Dr. Pritchard arose and stated that Mr. Vann felt a deep interest in a Sabbath School which had recently been founded at Scotland Neck, Halifax county, and persons would carry around baskets for contributions to this school. After this, Dr. Pritchard spoke warmly and forcibly, for a few moments, in behalf of the cause of temperance, and then dismissed the assembly.

An Independent Citizen.

The congregations of several of the churches, were struck, Sunday, by a sight which presented itself to them on Edenton street, near the National Hotel, as they were dismissed after the morning service. A series of looking darkey wearing a half-high beaver, sat in his buggy, with his back to the crowd, and on the holy Sabbath took in the fascinations of the circus pictures, having driven up close to the boards to be cut of the way of passing vehicles. As he finished with one section of the pictures, he touched his mule and moved up a little distance. In defiance of the moral sense of the community, he moved on and on until a mental photograph had been taken of each several picture, and finally, all finished, he gave his old mule a cut and capered off down street, turning, as he rounded the corner, to "cast out" a lingering look behind."

Pure Water.

While the city fathers have under consideration and are agitating the question of supplying the city with good, pure, wholesome water, we hope they will not in the meantime overlook the propriety of seeing that the water which are compelled to use from the street pumps is as pure and free from poisonous substances as is in their power to make it. Among other pumps, special attention of the proper authorities is called to that situated at the corner of North and Salisbury streets, near the B. & G. R. R. depot, the water being of each a foul nature as to have compelled families to give up its use entirely. Our friends in that neighborhood, are loud in their cries for a visit from the pump doctor, and it is hoped that he will go to see the pump and remedy the nuisance.

Renounced the Republican Party.

We are exceedingly gratified to be able to state that William Jenks, Esq., a member of the Board of Commissioners of this county, and a gentleman well known to our readers, has publicly renounced his allegiance to the Republican party, and avowed his determination to act hereafter with the Democratic party. He says that he cannot understand how an honest white man can remain longer in the ranks of the Republican party. We are sure that this news will gratify the many friends of Mr. Jenks throughout the county. He is a man of high character, and his popularity was evidenced in 1874, when he was the only Republican elected upon the Board of County Commissioners.

Personal.

Messrs. J. C. L. Harris, F. H. Busbee and Jos. B. Batchelor, of the Raleigh bar, left, yesterday morning, to attend Warren Court. Gen. W. R. Cox will leave on the same errand this morning.

Ordered to Attend.

We are under orders to attend, in full pan and feathers, a grand convocation of the warriors of the Indian Lodge of Charlotte, to be held between now and the time that the new moon begins to wax. The order is signed by the Barefoot Chief, and endorsed with the signs manual of Crazy Horse, Sitting Bull, Rain-in-the-Face and Man-under-the-Ground. The convocation is to be held at "Smoky Hollow," and the purpose is to take leave of the squaws before the warriors go to join battle with their brethren the Sioux, against the palefaces. Young Man—Fond-of-His-Cocktail will deliver the parting address, which will be followed by the war-dance. The programme is gotten up elaborately and elegantly.

On Account of Taking a Men of a "Jibe."

Jubal Emery, was before Justice Maguin, yesterday, on the charge of Mary Watson, that he had committed burglary upon her house, four miles in the country, in that he had entered it clandestinely and by force, in the night time, while the family was asleep, and had stolen a hen from off a joist where it was roosting, and carried it away. Defendant waived an examination and was put in jail until 4 o'clock this afternoon, at which time he proposed to appear again in court with witnesses and prove an alibi.

Probable Candidate for the Senate.

Capt. Sam'l J. Skinner, of Granville, seems most prominently spoken of as the candidate for the Senate from that county. Mr. Skinner is a wide awake, persevering and vigilant worker in the cause of Democracy in Granville, and many accessions to our ranks in his county are due to his individual exertions.

From Chatham—Boys Raise a Pole.

The Club at Sanford—Cane Presentation.

SANFORD, N. C., Sept. 4, 1876.

Mr. Editor:—It is rare that anything occurs in our quiet little village to break the monotony; but last Friday there was some little excitement created by the boys in Mrs. Tucker's school. Those boys will average in age from 11 to 12 years, and they raised a pole 50 feet high, upon which they hoisted a beautiful Tilden and Vance flag, made entirely by the little girls of said school. They did all the work themselves, positively ignoring all offers of outside assistance. So, the little village of Sanford, within whose corporate limits there cannot be 20 white votes counted, can boast of two Tilden and Vance flags.

In behalf of the Tilden and Vance Club of this place, and for the benefit of the Constitution, (a little newspaper, we believe, printed in your city, that would not deviate, we are sure, from its usual truthfulness, knowing, as we will say, that our Club here numbers 81 active, able-bodied, full-grown voters, and not one of them lives exceeding two miles from the depot.

At a meeting of the Club last Friday night, it was resolved to present Mr. J. A. Browder with a gold-headed cane, for the valuable services rendered by him in raising our pole; and that a vote of thanks be tendered to all the ladies of Sanford and vicinity who in any way assisted in the making of our flag.

We have written to Gen. Cox, to send us some speakers at an early day, at which time we hope to see some of the representatives of the News.

Sudden Death.

Mr. Sam'l W. Price, a brother of Mrs. M. A. Hardie, of this city, and himself long a resident of Raleigh, where he is well known, died suddenly in Baltimore on Sunday. He was studying for the ministry of the Baptist Church at the Baptist Theological Seminary, Richmond, and was on his way to the Centennial, when he was attacked by sickness, while passing through Baltimore, and died very suddenly. Mr. Price was a native of Isle of Wight county, Virginia, and at the time of his death was about 23 years of age. His remains will arrive here this afternoon on the Raleigh & Gaston train, and the funeral will take place at 4 o'clock from the Salisbury Street Baptist Church.

An Old Cannon Dug Up.

The hands employed at work on the Raleigh and Augusta Air-Line Railroad, have found in a branch close to where they are grading, between Cameron and Hamlet, an old cannon. It was said to have been embedded in the ground directly on the line of Cornwallis' march, between Fayetteville and Salisbury. It is badly rust-eaten, and has every sign of antiquity. They speak of sending it to the Centennial.

Speaking at Franklin's.

Quite a crowd was at Franklin's, in Swift Creek Township, last Saturday to hear the address which had been promised from C. M. Busbee, Esq. Mr. Busbee was there and spoke, and remarks were also offered by L. D. Stephenson, Esq., Sheriff S. M. Dunn, and B. Y. Rogers, Esq. The feeling in that township is reported as good, and all things political are said to be lovely.

Harvest Moon.

We are for a few nights now enjoying the glories of the harvest moon. This is the season when the moon being near its full, at the time of the harvest in England or about the time of the autumnal equinox, rises at the same hour for several evenings. This is by reason of the small angle of the ecliptic and moon's orbit with the horizon. During this time of harvest moon the queen of the night seems of unusual brilliancy.

Registrars of Elections.

All of the registrars of election appointed, yesterday, by the Board of County Commissioners, are Democratic, and in this connection attention may be called to the advertisement in another column, stating that Judge Bond will begin a special term of the United States Court in this city on the 20th inst., for the appointment of supervisors of election and registration. It remains to be seen what this extraordinary step means.

Attempted Burglary.

Last Sunday morning, about 4 o'clock, an attempt of the National Hotel, while sitting in a window, noticed a negro enter the back yard and try one of the rear doors of the hotel. Failing to get in at this, he went to the door of the bar-room underneath, and tried this but just then the colored watchman, who heard the noise, appeared at the back door, and the trespasser fled.

Change of Appointment.

The appointment of M. J. Jos. A. Engelhardt, at Morrisville, in this county, on the 9th, has been changed to Oak Grove, and he will address the people of the last named section on that day. Mr. R. H. Battle, Jr., will speak, the same day, at Eagle Rock.

Capt. Horton's Excursion, Sunday.

The excursion to Ridgeway, Sunday, run by Capt. John W. Horton, was successful, and the efforts of this enterprising and efficient railroad official, to afford our citizens a little innocent enjoyment, was rewarded by substantial acknowledgments, (of a greenback nature) from many excursionists, both white and colored. As announced, the cars left Raleigh at 7 a. m., and reached Ridgeway about 10:30, and after allowing the pleasure-seekers several hours to inhale a few breezes of fresh air, the train left for Raleigh and reached here about 7 o'clock. Everything worked harmoniously during the entire day, and not a single case of drunkenness or an accident of any nature occurred to mar the pleasure of the excursionists.

Attention, Democrats and Conservatives of Raleigh Township.

There will be a meeting of the Democrats and Conservatives of Raleigh Township at the Court House in the City of Raleigh on Saturday, September 10th, 1876, at 12 o'clock M., for the purpose of appointing delegates to the County Convention, which will meet in this city on Wednesday, September 13th, 1876. Let every Democrat and Conservative in Raleigh Township attend.

Jos. A. Harris, Chm'n. Ex-Com.

From Away Down in Maine.

The orders come in for that famous smoking tobacco, the "Golden Belle of Durham." A druggist in Bangor writes: "The distance is so great, as to make express freight very high, but send it along, my customers will have it."

The Firm of D. S. Waitt & Bros.

Have leased for a term of years, Jas. M. Towles' front store No. 52, on Fayetteville street, and are having the same fitted up, entirely new. They will move from their old place about the first of October.

They say business is dull; sugar and coffee are selling slowly.

Not so with Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup; we understand our druggists can hardly supply the demand.

JUDGE SETTLE voted for Governor Vance in 1862. It was the best vote he ever cast.

"What does Vance mean?" asks the New North State. He means to be the next Governor of North Carolina.

JUDGE C. R. THOMAS is no longer "a doubting Thomas." He perceived his line of duty to the Old North State; and was courageous enough to follow it.

We welcome the re-appearance of the Newbernian, under the management of Seth M. Carpenter, Esq. Its editorials have the ring of true metal; and we wish it abundant success.

"The whole safety of the South is confined in five letters—F-I-G-H-T."—William W. Holden, 1863.

EX GOV. HOLDEN testifies to Maj. W. A. Smith's activity as a deserter-hunter. We refer our readers to an article taken from the Greensboro Patriot, which gives an extract from the Standard of 1863 regarding deserters and the notorious deserter-hunter.

The practice of taxing office-holders for political purposes is expressly forbidden by the President's order in the civil service rules, and by a provision in the Legislative bill, which in the most direct and positive manner prohibits assessments or contributions under any pretext whatever. In defiance of these regulations, the practice is pursued. The Republican managers don't hesitate to vio-

SETTLE'S SECESSION RESOLUTIONS.

Judge Settle was a member of the Legislature of 1854-55, from Rockingham. He was then a Democrat, and a genuine fire-eater. The General Assembly met on the 20th of November, 1854. Mr. Settle eight days afterwards, introduced the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the act passed at the last session of Congress, providing territorial governments for Nebraska and Kansas, embraces the true principle in relation to the power of the Federal Government on the subject of slavery in the Territories.

2. Resolved, That the principle asserted in said act on the question of slavery, is a subject of vital importance, upon which all Southern men ought to unite.

3. Resolved, That the attempt on the part of some of the States of the North to interfere with the Constitution of the United States, and fraught with incalculable mischief to the people of this State.

4. Resolved, That the preservation of the rights of this State, in the peaceful enjoyment of the domestic institution of slavery, is a paramount duty.

5. Resolved, That much praise is due to the patriotic men who have boldly maintained the compromises of the constitution in the midst of the infuriated fanaticism of the North.

6. Resolved, That this State is determined to resist any further encroachments upon her constitutional rights.

7. Resolved, That in the event the Federal Government repeal or impair the efficiency of the provisions of the fugitive slave law, or refuse to enforce its execution in good faith, that it will amount to a virtual dissolution of the Union, and that it will become the duty of this State to take such measures as may be required for her safety and security.

8. Resolved, That if either of the contingencies contemplated in the foregoing resolution should arise during the recess of the General Assembly, that the Governor be requested to convene that body, to the end that the rights of the State may be maintained.

9. Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted by the executive to each of the Senators and Representatives in Congress from this State, to be laid before their respective Houses, and also a copy to the Governors of the respective States of the Union.

These resolutions were read, and on motion of Mr. Settle, ordered to lie upon the table and be printed. On Thursday, January 11, 1854, Mr. Settle moved that they be taken up and made the special order of the day for the succeeding Thursday. So anxious was he to have the parties recorded on his secession resolutions, that he demanded the yeas and nays on his motion. Among those who voted against the motion was Zebulon B. Vance, then the representative of Buncombe. That was probably his first recorded vote against secession. He set himself square against the movement from the very first.

The resolutions were taken up on Friday, January 19, 1855: we are particular about dates as the Republicans are denying everything. Mr. J. M. Leach offered an amendment in relation to squatter sovereignty. Mr. Outlaw moved to lay the resolutions and amendment upon the table. Vance voted in favor of this motion; but the majority voted the other way. Then, Mr. David F. Caldwell moved to lay the whole matter upon the table; and Vance voted for the motion, but it was again lost. The resolutions were finally tabled, and Mr. Settle's efforts in the direction of Disunion signally failed.

This is the history of the much talked of Secession Resolutions, in brief. It places their author in the front rank of secessionists; and is a silent rebuke to the demagogism which he is now displaying upon the stump. It fixes him as an advocate of slavery; and records him in history as foremost among those who regarded a "dissolution of the Union" as a proper way to resist the "infuriated fanaticism of the North" and the encroachments upon the constitutional rights of the States.

On the other hand, it shows Gov. Vance to have been even at that early day the same friend of the Union and enemy of Secession, which he consistently continued to be until the war burst upon us, and there was nothing to do but "to fight it out," as Chief Justice Pearson said.

A SPECIMEN REPUBLICAN.

John T. Deweese says he paid James H. Harris, one of the leading Republicans of this State, $1,000 in 1868, to keep him from bolting Deweese's nomination for Congress; and $2,000 more to keep him from supporting Seymour for President in 1868.

In the sworn statement of the account of G. W. Swenson and M. S. Littlefield, it appears that this same James H. Harris was paid bribe-money, as follows:

December 11, 1868,	$50.00
January 13, 1869,	500.00
February 1, 1869,	500.00
February 21, 1869,	600.00
February 27, 1869,	5,850.00
Total,	$7,500.00

Thus it appears that in the short period of two months and a half, this negro Legislator received bribe-money to the amount of $7,500. This added to the amount received from Deweese makes a grand total of $10,500 received between Deweese's nomination in 1868 and February 27, 1869.

This corrupt negro man, is held in high esteem by his party, State and National. The Settles and Smiths, the Tourgees, and all the rest of them do him honor whenever occasion offers. The Republicans of Wake sent him to the Legislature in 1870, and in 1872. Aye, they made him a Senator, though reeking with corruption!

This man was a Vice President of the National Republican Convention which nominated Hayes and Wheeler. He was among the most prominent of the men who nominated Settle, Smith & Co. He escorted the temporary President to the chair. He seconded the nomination of Settle in a 10 minutes' speech. He was, in a word, one of the chief cooks and bottle washers of the corrupt concern.

But still worse, the party made him one of the Executive Committee of the State. There his name stands sandwiched between J. J. Mott, Revenue officer, and D. H. Starbuck, of odious memory.

James H. Harris is a specimen Republican. Many of the other leaders are a thousand times worse. Indeed, Harris was but an initiator of his white brethren.

Should Settle be elected men of Harris' stamp will come to the front again, and be the masters of North Carolina. Will the white people suffer such degradation?

PEARSON'S ADVICE TO VANCE.

Judge Pearson advised Gov. Vance during the war about the "peace meetings." We reproduce from the columns of the Winston Sentinel a letter from his Honor upon this subject.

It was the Chief Justice's province during the war, together with his associates, to construe the conscription and exemption acts. It was Gov. Vance's duty to enforce them. The Governor and the Chief Justice were alike actuated by the single motive of love for North Carolina.

The Chief Justice said, in March, 1864, "ever since the State seceded, my opinion has been that we are in for it, and the only way is to fight it out—there is no use in talking about peace until one side or the other is whipped good."

It is not surprising that the Chief Justice held such views of the war, when the great War-Editor was crying out that "the whole safety of the South is confined in five letters—F-I-G-H-T;" and was exhorting the authorities to raise the whole male population; to "put them in the militia, if they won't volunteer; drill them until their legs get limber; blow the life, beat the drum, and rouse their latent courage, if they have any."

A SIGNIFICANT INCIDENT.

We are informed that the following incident occurred on Saturday last at Leesville, in this county, while Mr. R. H. Battle, Jr., was replying to Col. L. J. Young:

Mr. Battle, after reading and commenting upon Gov. Vance's communications to the authorities at Richmond, during the war, threatening resistance if certain lawlessness by Confederate authorities was not stopped, and writs of habeas corpus issued by our State Judges were not respected, appealed to the people to know whether they couldn't trust a man who so upheld the law in such times?

An intelligent man from the crowd replied: "I will vote for him, though I haven't voted before since the war."

We think there are many such men in the State, and if appealed to as earnestly, forcibly and temperately as Mr. Battle does, they will come out for Vance.

We congratulate Judge C. R. Thomas upon his change of heart. He was right in following his convictions. It was mainly in him to do so in the face of the censure, sneers and derisions of his former allies. When he became convinced that the country needed reform, and that that reform could not be hoped for from the Republicans, every motive of patriotism and honesty prompted him to join the Democrats. He has set an example which many of his quondam associates will probably follow.

We print to-day a statement of the garbled letters used by Judge Settle against Gov. Vance. This statement is taken from our lively co-temporary, the Fayetteville Wide Awake. The unfairness of Gov. Vance's competitor becomes more apparent now than ever. The gist of these extracts is, that Gov. Vance was active in arresting deserters, and taking steps to prevent further desertions, as he was in duty bound to do.

The organ of the Greensboro clique complains that the Democratic newspapers are lying about Bill Smith; and consoles itself with the reflection that this sort of warfare cannot hurt him much. Certainly not, for his hide is thicker than the hide of any beast in the known world, except the hide of a very old rhinoceros or a carpet-bagger.

The Fayetteville Wide Awake says Judge Settle regrets having used abusive language at Jonesboro; and that he is represented as having said he had "a notion to quit the d-d canvass and let the whole thing go to—hell!" He need not bother himself. The "whole thing" is going that way now in spite of him.

The New North State says Colonel Young did not say "lie like—hell, and stick to it." In the next breath, it says that Major Smith is "more than a match" for both Leach and Davis. We are afraid our carpet-bag co-temporary is practicing what it intimates Col. Young is too honorable to preach.

Gov. VANCE, so far from being a secessionist, as the Republicans attempt to show, was denounced during the war by secession newspapers. One of them, the Raleigh Register, in its issue of July 23, 1862, said, "Remember that if Zebulon Vance shall be elected Governor, the Yankees will claim it as an indubitable sign that the Union sentiment is in the ascendancy in the heart of the Southern Confederacy."

REFORM.

A Negro's Opinion of the Republican Party.

Richard M. Johnson, a prominent colored Republican and ex-member of the Legislature, from Edgecombe, recently joined the Democrats. Here is his letter renouncing Republicanism:

TARBORO, N. C. Aug. 18th, '76.
To the President and Officers of the Tilden and Vance Campaign Club.

I hereby tender my resignation to the Republican party and ask that my name be enrolled in that of the Democracy. Having been a faithful member of the Republican party all my political life, it will be remembered in the campaign of 1874, I was one of the few Republicans in the county that asked for Reform in my party, which was not adhered to. Now I am fully of the opinion, not only that the country demands reform, but also the nation, and as one of the citizens of this republic, I hereby tender my weak and feeble ability to the standard bearers of Reform, Samuel J. Tilden, Thomas A. Hendricks and Zebulon B. Vance.

I am very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
RICHARD M. JOHNSON.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

The Garble Monger is abroad in the land.

Senator Gordon of Georgia is ill at his home in that State.

Jarvis has taken nearly all the tooth out of Billy Smith's horn.

President Grant, writing to a friend at Houghton, Mich., says: "I long for the 4th of next March."

B. J. Lancaster, of Edgecombe, sent Gov. Tilden a Mammoth peach. He has received in response a photograph of the next President.

The Rev. Henry M. Field of the N. Y. Evangelist is engaged to marry Miss Fanny Dwight, a member of an old Massachusetts family.

Mukhtar Pasha, the General-in-Chief of the Turkish Army in Herzegovina, is 45 years old, has a kindly expression, and large dark Oriental eyes.

Mr. A. H. Stevens has so far recovered that he is able to walk about the outside world. It is possible that he will make a political speech next month.

The Okolona (Miss.) Messenger has perpetrated a libel on Dr. W. F. Simonton, the Grand Mugul of Radicalism in Northeast Mississippi. It accused him of hog-stealing—and proved it.

President Grant's income as a farmer is nothing wonderful. It is reported that his farm has required a yearly outgo of $10,000 beyond receipts. It is now rented to two different persons for $2,300 a year. The net income, however, is only $1,200, for the taxes amount to $800.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

Gov. Brogden is advertised to speak at Warrenton to-day.

The Tilden and Vance Clubs of Edgecombe are very active.

James E. Shepherd, Esq., delivered a powerful address at Bath last Saturday.

A Tilden and Vance club has been organized at Rich Square, Northampton county, with Dr. J. C. Jacobs, President.

The Democrats of Cumberland have nominated Geo. M. Rose and I. W. Godwin for the House of Representatives. This is an excellent ticket.

The Democrats of Forsyth have nominated for the Senate, Thos. J. Wilson, and for the House, J. M. Stafford, J. G. Hill is the nominee for Sheriff.

Col. L. B. Polk, of Anson, is out in a card, announcing himself as a candidate before the Democratic Convention, for Senatorial honors in Anson and Union counties.

Edward Colingland and A. J. Barton, Esq., Col. D. C. Clark, and others, will soon begin the canvass in this county, and will thoroughly discuss the issues of the day.—Roanoke News.

Joseph B. Gillespie, a prominent citizen of North Mecklenburg, and one of the best farmers in the county, has within the past few days openly become a Vance convert.—Charlotte Observer.

The Democratic candidates for the county of Rowan were nominated by Townships. The Executive Committee directed the Townships to hold full meetings, and take the vote of the people. The votes were compared by the Executive Committee. This is a new plan.

Steps are being taken by the Central Club to have a grand barbecue and speaking some time in October, say about the 15th. Efforts will be made to get Gov. Vance, Senator Bayard, of Delaware, and other distinguished speakers.—Warrenton Gazette.

Samuel H. Wiley, late Collector of Internal Revenue of the 6th Collection District has renounced the Republican faith and will henceforth vote for the ticket of reform. He openly announces his adhesion for Tilden and Vance.—Charlotte Observer.

At the first meeting between Col. Yates and McLindsey in this campaign Lindsay charged that Yates had done nothing for his constituents, since he had been in Congress. In response to which Yates took from his pocket, a bill which he had gotten through Congress, making an appropriation for the improvement of the navigation of the river, near which they were speaking, and for the special benefit of the very people they were addressing. Lindsay staggered under the refutation, and the crowd cheered Yates.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

Democratic Nominations in Guilford. GREENSBORO, N. C., Sept. 2, '76. Mr. Editor:—I merely write to announce the county ticket nominated by the Conservatives of Guilford in the largest mass meeting, possibly, that has assembled here since the war, and altogether, for so large a body, as harmonious: For the Senate—Col. J. I. Scales, For the House—Dr. Nereus Mendelhall, Sheriff—Robert M. Stafford, the present incumbent, Treasurer—W. W. Ragsdale, the present incumbent. The old Board of County Commissioners were nominated by acclamation and no opposition. Stirling speeches of acceptance were made by Col. Scales, Messrs. Swain and Stafford, who were present, and Col. Yates. Truly the people are arising in their might in this county, and our prospects were never brighter. Public speaking is now the order of the day—in some parts of the county nearly every day. Truly,

SUBSCRIBER.

THE GARBLED LETTERS.

Settle's Unparalleled Unfairness. [Fayetteville Wide Awake.]

At Jonesboro we heard the discussion between Judge Settle and Governor Vance. We have been, for some time, particularly anxious to know what the contents of the garbled letters of Gov. Vance which are read and commented upon by his competitor. We found out Friday. As we have no doubt that many of our readers are still curious to know what they contain we propose to state the substance.

1. March 2, 1876. Gov. Vance to Gen. Lee: Send me two regiments of cavalry to be used in the disaffected districts of this State. They can be maintained by foraging on the deserters and their harriers, and used to arrest deserters and recruit the army. Gen. Lee's reply: Can't spare cavalry, but send infantry to Chatham and Moore where the bands of deserters are most numerous, and whence operations in other quarters when necessary may be started. Instructed, when resisted, to take no prisoners. Letter from Edw. Stanley to Gov. Vance: North Carolina has taken obligation to stand by the confederacy, the honor of the State is involved; these obligations shall be fulfilled, this honor vindicated, with the last dollar and the last drop of blood. Letter of Gov. Vance to Secretary of War Seddon: Write to Maj. H. A. Badham asking his appointment as Tything Agent in preference to one recommended. Write now to say he is least competent of any recommended. To Seddon again: Recommend a military court for the Western District of N. C. to try and punish deserters. His moral effect will be good and will prevent the escape of desperate men who are captured from poorly guarded prisons, or inefficient guards while being transported to the army. To J. A. Seddon again: Asking for a military police force to preserve order in the deserter country of the State; and stating that he has recommended the Legislature to pass a law disfranchising all who illegally avoid duty in the public defense. Proclamation to deserters: If permitted to live you will be infamous, and will be hustled from the polls. Letter to Hon. W. T. Dortch: I urged upon the Legislature the passage of a law to punish deserters and recalcitrant conscripts. This measure was defeated through the influence of Gov. Graham. Will not Congress take some action to clean out North Carolina? Letter to President Dorr: Tells of his effort with Legislature, and failing of his effort through Dortch to have Congress act, and failing; and appeals to him to send sufficient force to suppress disorder in the disaffected districts. Last the Calloway letter, which has been published in full in the State papers, in which he denounces the thieves, robbers, arsonists and assaults and murders committed by the deserters, warns them to desist from depredations, declares that they and those who harbor them will be infamous, and avowing his intention to visit them with fire and sword if they do not refrain from violence and disorder.

Such are the garbled letters; and Judge Settle hopes by reading them to revive the passions and hatred of the war; and thus ride into power; but fortunately for the good people of North Carolina there is no vestige of a chance for him to succeed in this aspiration. Gov. Vance takes him up point by point and demolishes every position which he assumes. The Governor shows that he was a Peace Man, a Union Man, but that he discharged his duty to his people when they elected him to office. He will be triumphantly elected in November, and Judge Settle is welcome to all the benefit he may derive from his unparalleled meanness in garbling Gov. Vance's letters.

ASHAMED AND REPENTS.

[Fayetteville Wide Awake.]

We have been reliably informed by a gentleman of this town, that after the speaking at Jonesboro on Friday, Judge Settle, en route for Chatham county, stopped at Sanford, and while there became shamefully intoxicated and falling off his horse, having used such abusive language before the intelligent multitude at Jonesboro, in the following words: "I was a d-d fool for speaking as I did, and I have a notion to quit the d-d canvass and let the whole thing go to h—l!" Ah, ha! We think after the severe skinning he received at the hands of Gov. Vance that the Judge has just reason to become discouraged, and his notion to quit the canvass, if put into execution, would save him all the heart-rending humiliation of an overwhelming defeat.

CHIEF JUSTICE PEARSON.

He Advises Gov. Vance during the War—"The Only Way is to Fight it Out!" [Winston Sentinel.]

The following extract of a letter written by Judge Pearson to a military friend, dated "Richmond, Va., March 23, 1864," shows that His Honor Judge Richmond M. Pearson, was not only in full accord with Gov. Vance, in the course he pursued while our War Governor, but that he advised him what he should do about the "peace meeting": "Your contradiction of any imputation upon the motives under which I have acted, in all of the questions which I have been called on to decide, is no more than I expected of you; still it is gratifying to know that I have some friends who are to be relied on. Perhaps, in the consciousness of my own singleness of purpose, and the hold which I know I have on the good opinions of the members of the profession and the people at large, I regard too little the aspersions of those who do not take the trouble to think themselves, but are content with the repetition of newspaper abuse. All I ask of such men, as penance for the injustice they have done me, is to read my opinion in Walton's case, and in Roseman's case. They may not agree with me, but they will feel satisfied that I have acted from the clearest convictions of duty. I have as much at stake as any of them, and God knows I love our country as well. So, when a newspaper resorts to abuse, it only shows my reasons cannot be answered. In regard to my opinion in the habeas corpus cases, you may say to your friends that nearly all of the principles were decided by me on the construction of the constitution and exemption acts before last June term, and every one of my decisions were affirmed by the Supreme Court. Then on the acts of Congress will be before the Court next June, and I will, of course, be governed by the decisions of the Court. I go so little from home as to have but few occasions to express my political opinions. I will say to you, and you are at liberty to read this letter to your military friends to whom you allude, ever since the State seceded, my opinion has been that we are in for it, and the only way is to fight it out—there is no use in talking about peace until one side or the other is whipped good. These sentiments I freely communicated to Gov. Vance when he wrote asking my advice as to what he should do about the "peace meetings." The idea of North Carolina leaving her sister States in the lurch, is out of the question. Very truly yours, &c., R. M. PEARSON.

W. A. SMITH as a Deserter Hunter.

[Greensboro Patriot.]

We copy the following paragraph from the Raleigh Standard, of October 21, 1876, edited by Holden, as an evidence of the zeal and efficiency displayed by Major Smith, now Radical candidate for Lieutenant Governor, in the pursuit of deserters for whom he now professes so much friendship: "We hear that twenty-five deserters have been taken in Johnston county within the last week or two. There are but few remaining in that county, and they will probably be gathered up soon. Major Smith and his Home Guard are very active." The Major as a deserter catcher was a success, especially after he hit on the bloodhound plan.

LATEST TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

THE DAILY NEWS IS THE ONLY PAPER IN RALEIGH THAT TAKES THE TELEGRAPHIC REPORTS, AND IS THE ONLY ONE THAT FURNISHES THE LATEST NEWS AND MARKET REPORTS.

FOREIGN.

Continuous Reports of Battles, Retreats, etc.—The Latest News a Turkish Victory.

LONDON, Sept. 4.—A Belgrade despatch to the Standard says: "Simultaneously with the fighting on the left bank of the Morava, the Turkish forces attacked Alexanatz from the right bank of the river. The bombardment was so effective that extensive fires broke out in the town. It is announced that Alexanatz has been evacuated, but the fortress is still held by ten battalions. The government publishes no news, but confirms the statement that the Turks are marching on Krusevatz."

Another despatch to the Standard from Alexanatz states that the Circassians have entered three Serbian redoubts, northwest of Alexanatz. Mines filled with dynamite were discovered. The Turks have gained a base for operations against two villages, which protect Alexanatz on the west.

A Belgrade telegram says the Russians are determined to form a special corps. The valor of the Russian officers in the battle of Friday, is commented on. It is reported that some were wounded by men under their command.

A Reuter's telegram from Semlin reports that the battle on Friday, on the left bank of the Morava, resulted disastrously to the Serbians. The Turks, after beating the right wing of the Serbians, made a flank movement in the direction of Krusevatz, their object being to reach Diligrad. The Turks have thus turned the Serbian position at Alexanatz, and the entire military position is changed. The Turks have already reached the heights of Justivatz, half way between Teschinza and Krusevatz. They are advancing along the road which skirts the left bank of the Morava and crosses the river at Praskovatz and joins the road between Alexanatz and Belgrade, at Jakovovatz.

WASHINGTON.

Cabinet Ministers in Conference—Begging for Intimidation for the South Carolina Whites.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—Secretaries Cameron, Robeson, Chandler, and Attorney General Taft, and General Sherman, were in consultation, today, it is supposed over the order to marshals. After the conference, they gave a hearing to Senator Patterson and Gov. Chamberlain, of South Carolina. They represent that there are eight or ten counties in the State where Republicans are intimidated, and apprehensions are expressed that many of them will be prevented from voting.

THE NEW YORK DEMOCRATS.

They will Probably Meet in Convention Again.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—The World says Magone left Utica for Albany Saturday afternoon and spent yesterday in consultation with Gov. Tilden and members of the State Committee there, including all of its officers and several of its members. A meeting of the Executive Committee of the State Committee will take place at its new headquarters in Metropolitan Hotel, this city, next Thursday. It is not improbable that a conference of the whole committee may be summoned at an earlier date or upon the day mentioned. Dispatches from various parts of the State leave little or no doubt that the committee will call a State Convention to meet at once, probably at Utica or Syracuse.

NORTH CAROLINA.

The Shelby Banner, under its new management, bids fair to do well. It is a handsome sheet.

From the 10th or 12th instant, the Piedmont Press will be issued daily until after the election.

A fruitless attempt was made, last Saturday morning, to break into the office of Capt. S. E. Belk, Treasurer of Mecklenburg county.

A colored woman named Amanda Powell, living at Brinkleyville, Halifax county, gave birth to an infant recently, and killed it. She hid it under the bed in an iron pot, and there it was found. The woman escaped. This from the Wilkes News.

Sam Orr, white, and Sam Coper, colored, quarreled in Mecklenburg, when the former drew a knife, with which he stabbed the latter in the abdomen, inflicting a wound which will probably produce death.

This singular accident is chronicled by the Rockingham Spirit of the South: Jesse Wall, colored, laid down to rest himself a few nights since, on the speaker's stand in front of the store of Long, Cooper & Co., and falling asleep, rolled off, (as is supposed) so severely injuring himself that it is thought he cannot survive.

Piedmont Press: Some four or five months ago a gentleman in this county gave Col. P. M. Hildebrand a dog, which acted as all dogs should act, stayed with him until he joined the Radical party, then it did as all respectable dogs should do. As soon as Col. Hildebrand received the nomination for the House of Representatives at the hands of the Republican party, the dog left him and returned to his old master and now refuses to stay with the Colonel.

Wilmington Star: A young man by the name of Bryant Swan, a carpenter by trade, was yesterday engaged to handling some scantling at Union Depot, where he was at work, when one of the pieces was projected upwards by some means, striking him on the nose and splitting it open its entire length, making a frightful wound. A physician was called, when it was found necessary to use a pair of pincers to bring the two parts together in order to affix an adhesive plaster to the injured organ, the patient in the meantime, as may well be imagined, suffering intensely.

Charlotte Observer: A very interesting and novel question arose in Court, Thursday morning, involving the validity of a marriage between a negro, Isaac Kennedy, and a white woman named Mag Dulin. These parties lived in Charlotte, and were citizens of North Carolina, and in order to evade the statute of this State, which forbids intermarriages between whites and negroes, they went to South Carolina, where such marriages were not prohibited, and were married at Rock Hill, under the forms of law in that State, and returned to North Carolina. They were indicted here for fornication and adultery, and set up this marriage as a defense. His Honor Judge Schenck held that the marriage was void as a fraud upon the law of North Carolina, which was the lex domicilii and governed the case.

Appointments of Mr. Robbins and Gen. Scales.

A Theory Borne out by Facts. The theory that lack of vigor is the underlying cause of disease is receiving daily confirmation of the most positive kind in the cure of dyspepsia, or its disorders and kidney-bladder or urinary complaints by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the full-grown remedy for all such troubles. This is a powerful tonic never used without the most beneficial effect. It gives the bowels, the organs of nutrition, and indeed the entire system, a new vigor and regularity through its action, which it gives. Hostetter's Bitters is a specific for all such troubles, and its use is a reliable means of counteracting the effects of indigestion or of a laxative and soothes as well as strengthens the nervous system.

From Presbyterian Weekly, Baltimore, Md.: We unhesitatingly recommend Golden's Liebig's Liquid Extract of Beef and Tonic for invalids or weak men in the country, or failing health in the old. Williams & Haywood, Agents.
